Council-School Road Tiff Continues

Buildings Discussed By Board Tax Rolls, Principals, New And Old

Six of the Cameron Public School Administration and teachers were given a vote of confidence by way of a three year contract at the conclusion of the School Boards regular meeting Monday night.

Teachers and members of the administrative staff to be offered the three year contracts are Wiley Loughmiller, Coaches Leo Jackson and Dick Young, Francis Cox. S. M. Layfield, with new contracts in effect until 1958 and W. T. Hanes, superintendent whose contract will be in effect until 1960.

At the outset of the meeting Mrs. Nina Wilkerson presented for the boards information, the 1954 tax roll for approval and the 1953 delinquent rolls and 1953 errors and assessments sheet for approval. It was pointed out by Bill Wallace, member of the board that the errors for the past year amounted to exactly .02 cents.

Total Maintenance tax fund, which is made up of $1.00 of the individual taxes per $100 valuation and the sinking fund tax, which is comprised of the remaining .35 cents of the overall $1.35 tax amounted to $88,544.62 for the current year.

All of the board members and Auditor for the school, Webb Anderson and Story of Waco, were exceedingly complimentary of Mrs. Wilson's work.

It was deemed "very good" that 92.53 per cent of the past years delinquent tax certificate. Bill Wallace stated that he thought the figure a little high with Mrs. Wilson countering that if you set a per-certificate it would be hard to ever change and W. T. Hanes added that cendent of a lower charge for the school taxes have been collected.

It was decided that in the future there will be a $1.00 charge for a now is the time to set up the proper procedure with Frank Reid tendering the motion that $1.00 be charged for the issuance of delinquent tax certificates.

Delinquent taxes now amount to $3,920.49 according to record with post cards being mailed individual taxed citizens who have past due taxes, every two months notifying them of the charges.

It was later specified that the $1.00 charge on the delinquet taxes should be allocated to the Maintenance fund.

After a brief introduction Dr. C. G. Swift, president of the board, introduced the members of the school administration, Layfield, Loughmiller and C. L. Sadberry, principal of the O. J. Thomas Schools.

Each of the men were called upon. Layfield said that to date he has no problems, that the teachers and youngsters are off to a good start and that the two new teachers are fitting in well and everything is going off "mighty fine".

Loughmiller, who spoke second, stated first that the strain of his situation has been relieved by the new building and that all of the new teachers are being cooperative and fitting into the school program well. He noted that there is less absenteeism this year among registered students than in the past although some few students known

Several proposed indictments will be brought before the attention of the Jury by County Attorney Jim Miller.

Jurors will be listed at a later date.

Milam Countians Start Holding On To Minerals

Texas Gulf Sulphur Company is the big work in oil operations in Milam County at the present time. It has been reported that the company is setting up for business between Rockdale and Milano, getting ready to start an 8,000 foot well.

This is among the first deep well ventures in this area, with all previous successful wells typed as shallow, being only approximately 1300 feet and yielding about 30 barrels per day.

Meanwhile, oil leases are being sold all over the county, and local property holders are beginning to hold onto at least part of their mineral rights when selling property.

Whether or not the public is being optomistic will be proved when there is conclusive evidence from the new 8,000 footer.

Local Dealers Report Poultry Egg Prices Down

It was reported this morning by local produce dealers that the price of eggs and poultry is down; down to practically depression day prices

The most contraversial subject in history, the egg, has hit a new low, from 18 to 30 cents per dozen, depending on the grade. At one time during 1954 the price of eggs ascended to 50 cents.

Poultry, fryers and hens, have dropped from a high of 28 cents per pound to a low of 12 cents.

Broilers are also at the bottom of the chart, registering a low of 21 in comparison with 32 cents earlier in the season.

This doesn't end the situation of the farmer, beef prices are on the bottom, pork is down about 10 cents per pound.

Another aspect of the bad situation is that the over-all drop also takes in turkeys, with 10 per cent more of the birds grown this year than in the past.

All of the price drops were attributed to over production and under consumption.

Farmers are also due for a heckling on another score, the needed phosphates, legumes, and clovers, necessary for soil conservation, are getting more scarce by the day due to the volumn of demand. The government is paying 80 per cent of the farmers cost on the above mentioned soil-savers in an effort to perserve the land for posterity.

10th Street Problem Re-Hashed At School Board Meeting

"The mountain groaned in pangs of birth: Great expectation filled the earth; And lo! a mouse was born." And so it was at the School Board meeting in W. T. Hanes, superintendent, office Monday evening.

The well-worn topic of the cement projections, safety islands or radius points as the much publicized and tremendously enlarged molehill proportioned traffic eliminating points in front of the new Ben Milam Elementary School have been called were near the first of the list on the boards agenda for discussion.

Councilman Robert Weems, chairman of the Road Committee, met with the board representing the City Council. Dr. C. G. Swift, president of the board read a letter sent him by the city council requesting that the board reconsider their refusal and take up the safety points as requested.

After a sustained silence Weems stated that he would like to ask the board to remove the projections so that he could gravel the street and complete it. "I'm trying to do a good job," Weems said, "and I'd like to finish that street."

Dr. Swift and several other board members said they had met with Texas Power and Light company officials to see what could be done about the light pole if the street markers were moved and that a remedy had been reached.

Weems said he believed that everybody would be better satisfied if the radius point were moved.

With a careful tongue Wallace deliberated the question, what's actually wrong with the radius points and questioned Weems as to his thoughts on the subject.

Upon Wallace's question, "What's wrong with them" Weem's hesitated and with the slightest smile stated, "Nothing."

Wallace next asked him if he didn't really think it a good idea and Weems, by his own admission between a rock and a hard place, answered, that he thought so if the curb was fixed.

F. W. Voglesang, one of the newest board members wondered what the city would have done had the school made no provisions for parking.

Hanes then stated that the local Midget was misleading when it printed, in the council story, that the projections were in the street. That they were not in the street, but to one side of the 30 foot thoroughfare; and then asked if Weems didn't think the board was foresighted in giving the city the entire 30 foot street way for traf-

YHS Idle Friday; Open District At Taylor October 22

District 22-AA play gets into full swing next week when the Cameron Yoemen, who have a 1-4 record (pre-district), visit the Taylor Ducks on October 22.

This week the Yoemen are resting, an open date they well deserve after fighting out one of the toughest schedules that ever hit them.

The team emerged from the Killeen game, beaten, but they're in top shape and high spirits for the opening district tussel against the many-times-beaten Ducks.

Rockdale and Belton still seem to be the area sport-writers pick to land on top of the District 22-AA heap, however, they seem to be a little bit optomistic about Cameron, which is proved by the fact that the Killeen-Cameron game was scouted heavily by Rockdale, Rosebud and Belton, the top rivals of the Yoes, whether they have a good team or not.

The Yoemen have looked good off and on, and have played some tough teams, while a team such as Rockdale has played smaller teams, yet winning by a large score.

Georgetown has a fair team and hasn't voiced its opinion very much this year. They're sitting along the side quitely with a 2-3 record. Rosebud is next with a 1-3 count while Cameron and Taylor hold the last position with each having a 1-4 record.

The Yoemen's only victory was the opening game against University High of Waco, 6-0. They have been beaten by Lampases, 33-26; Caldwell, 13-9; LaVega (Waco), 20-7 and Killeen, 20-6.

For a team that started out from only green candidates, the Yoemen have come a long way and are still improving. They'll be in top

Traffic Tickets Offenders Due In Court Now

No statement on the manner or system in which traffic ticket violators will be called to court by filed petition was forthcoming from City Attorney Roy Baskin. He added that the first petitions should be filed by the first of next week.

Yesterday, October 11, was proclaimed to be the final day for paying past-due traffic tickets according to a public notice published by Roy Baskin, representing the city government.

Baskin did state, however, that several of the tickets have been paid. The majority however, approximately 400, remain unpaid.

Eighty-six of the tickets have been issued to three parties, with County Judge Charles C. Smith, Jr., holding the largest amount, 45 of them. County Superintendent of Schools, Hinton H. Pruett has a balance of 25 unpaid tickets listed on the records and Gilford Thweatt has 17 tickets listed as unpaid.

There are 136 people oweing more than one ticket according to the records.

According to local officials letters have have been mailed after each three day leniency period to the parties issued tickets, and Attorney Baskin stated that he will again notify the parties prior to filing suit.

All of the afore mentioned tickets have been issued since July of 1954.

Ministerial Alliance To Back C R O P Program; $20 In Surplus Milk For $1.00

Ministerial Alliance met Thursday morning for a special meeting and decided to back the Christian Rural Overseas Program again this year.

In past years it has been the policy of CROP to contribute materials, which the government matched three to one, whether bales of cotton, sack of grain or whatnot.

This year the program will differ in that for each $1.00 contributed the government will ship $20 worth of milk products to war-torn or other wise afflicted peoples.

Pastors of the various Churches in town voted to aid the program to the fullest extend this year. October 30 the youth of the Churches will meet at the Presbyterian Church at 7 p. m. and from there visit the homes in the residential areas and, in connection with their Trick or Treat visits, take collections for the CROP Drive.

The $1.00 donated by local citizens will be used for cost of handling, packing, and distributing to the Church agencies overseas, where the supplies will in turn, be delivered to the needy.

Members of the Ministerial Alliance are Reverend Aubrey Russell, of the Baptist Church, president; Dr. Mark C. Magers of the Methodist Church; Reverend Harsh Brown of the Christian Church; Reverend John Solomon of the Presbyterian Church; Reverend H. M. Bowley of the Full Gospel; Reverend D. A. Lambert of the Nazarene Church and Reverend Jim McKeown of the Episcopal Church.

Their regular meeting is slated for November 7.

Youth Uninjured When Stepping Before Pick-up

William E. Mowdy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mowdy of Cameron, received only minor injuries when he started back across the street to the Ada Henderson elementary school yard to get some school items he forgot and stepped in front of a moving pick-up.

Investigating officer, Joe Richter, city marshall, said that the boy was exceptionally lucky, since the boy driving the pick-up was driving slow due to the school zone.

William was taken immediately to the St. Edwards Hospital in a Marak-Burns ambulance called by school authorities, and attending physicians are reported to have taken x-rays and made extensive examinations to discover that the obvious skinned heel was Williams only injury.

Street Numbers, Names Remain Same At Present

Although the general public has been reminded a number of times by both the city council and the Post Office that the new street numbers will not be used until city maps are renovated the pleas have, heretofore, gone unheeded.

City Councilmen are once more asking Cameronites to use their old address until otherwise notified.

In a public notice today they state, "The public is asked to continue using the old street names and numbers, until the new street names and numbers are officially changed by the City of Cameron, at which time a public official notice will be made."

Baskin - Triggs Case Tried In Court Monday

Julian P. Baskins case against Claude Triggs, cotton buyer, was presented before the District court Monday morning in the court house with Judge O.D. Graham presiding.

Milk, Canned Fruit Hiked In Cameron

Retail prices on milk were hiked one cent per quart in Central Texas this week. All Cameron grocery stores except one reported that the increase is in effect.

The hike applied to all types milk and cream, but grocery men in this immediate vicinity reported that butter prices will remain relatively the same.

One increase noted by most managers and owners of local stores was on canned fruits, although fresh fruit prices are still on an even keel.

Yoemen Hold 'Roos To 6-20 Score

Cameron Yoemen fumbled their way to a 20 to 6 loss to the Killeen Kangaroos here Friday night as the highly rated Killeen eleven converted two Cameron fumbles into touchdown drives. A 15 yard penality helped one TD drive, while the third Killeen touchdown was added by a 50 yard scamper by Robert Bates.

Cameron's only touchdown came late in the fourth quarter after a march from the 50 yard line.

Killeen Kangaroos bottled up some golden opportunities for the Cameron Yoemen as Joe Michalka, quarterback for the Yoemen, showed his talents, marked to a "T" with some beautiful passing that should have knocked any team off their feet. Time after time after throwing seventeen down field passes, the Yoemen felt them slip through their fingers, and completed only five.

Killeen remains undefeated and untied thus far in the season and the loss Friday was the fourth consecutive one for the local team. The losses on the Yoemen slate were hard ones as the team had one of the toughest schedules in Central Texas. Although losing, the team showed aggressive spirit with lots of hustle.

The game opened with Cameron receiving the opening kick off. After bogging down on about their own 40 yard line, Leon Beale, punter for Yoes, attempted to kick the Yoemen out when his punt was blocked and Killeen took over on the Yoe 40 yard line.

From that point the 'Roos moved swiftly down to the Cameron 16 yard line, threatening to score, but the Yoe forward wall stiffened, and held the 'Roos. They took over on downs after the Killeen drive was halted.

Cameron, at this point, failed to move out and Beale punted once more, this time getting the ball to the Killeen 35 where the Kangaroo player fumbled with the ball and Clifford Angell recovered for the Yoes.

The Yoemen moved down to the Killeen 25 yard line, stopped and Killeen took over. The 'Roos moved to the Yoe 30 yard line, where Cameron once more held the highlyly touted Killeen eleven and gaind pocession of the ball on their own 30.

At this point of play, Michalka tossed a pass to Beale, who was hit hard and dropped the ball. A quick, alert, 'Roo gridder fell on the pigskin at midfield, and Killeen begain its 50 yard touchdown march.

It took Killeen fourteen plays to drive over the double stripe for 6 points with Jack Reding making the talley. Cameron's Angell blocked Reding's attempted extra point.

The Cameron T moved the ball after the TD kickoff to Killeen's 46 but bogged down and the 'Roos took over. Two plays later the half ended with Killeen out in front, 6 to 0.

It took Killeen four plays and one 50 yard scamper to score in the opening minutes of the second half. Robert Bates, 174 pound back from Killeen raced fifty yards over left tackle and hit paydirt. Jan Franklin's attempt at the point after TD was good and Killeen was ahead, 13 to 0.

Two fifteen yard penalities against Killeen helped the Yoemen move the ball to the Killeen 29 yard line where the Cameron gridders were hungry for some touchdown meat too.

But tough luck hit them again as Joe Lee Heitman fumbled in a desperate attempt to gain yardage and an editorial . . .

The well of hatred is deep and once decended it is hard to reach an easy, friendly, common ground again.

Principles are often so impregnated with personal ideas and false values that the true principle is left untouched and the afflicted parties fight it out over the false values.

For a period of a month or more the Cameron City Council and the School Board, both in their honest opinion working with the people of Cameron in mind, have quibbled over whether or not there should be a safety zone for parked cars in front of the Ben Milam school building.

Each year one man on the council is appointed to head each committee. This year Robert Weems, an able councilman with a working knowledge of the streets of Cameron and their problems was appointed to head the street committee.

It is his job to see that the streets are in condition and it is his woe that he gets all the complaints.

If the council cannot get Weems decision on the 10th street problem and stand behind him all the way then they should out of respect for Mr. Weems elect another to the street committee.

The school, in regards to city streets can lawfully only make requests which in most cases the city is usually ready to assent to. If their problem is presented to Mr. Weems for his rejection or approval then there is no problem, they have done their duty and the city has done its duty. It has been ascertained long before this that all the people cannot be pleased.

OIL IS AT YOUR SERVICE

In oil-producing states, schools are substantially supported by oil industry taxes.
Detergents and a hundred other items of daily use are derived from petroleum hydrocarbons.
Synthetic fabrics are made from petroleum hydrocarbons.
Oil and natural gas supply power for industries.
Petroleum fuels the machines of national defense.
Cars burn gasoline, use tires of synthetic rubber.
Oil powers the U. S. transportation system.
Homes are heated by oil- or gas-burning furnaces.
Printing inks, paints and plastics are petroleum derivatives.
Natural gas is the fuel for millions of kitchen stoves.

The products of the petroleum industry are literally everywhere. Every hour of the day, oil or natural gas serves you and virtually every other American. Oil is indispensable to our way of life; it makes the United States a better, safer country to live in.

You may wake in the morning in a room warmed by a furnace burning fuel oil or natural gas.

You drive to work, and your car burns gasoline, uses petroleum oils and greases for lubricants, rolls on tires of synthetic rubber which had their beginning in an oil refinery.

The plant where you work may depend on oil or natural gas as the source of its power. The oil and gas industry supplies 65% of the nation's energy requirements.

Meanwhile, if you live in Texas, your children are attending schools to the support of which the oil industry pays heavy production and ad valorem taxes. And your U. S. Army, Navy and Air Force plan the national defense with confidence that the oil industry has developed the proven reserves that can fuel their machines of war. Oil also supplies munitions — TNT for instance.

Finally, the lady of the house may prepare dinner on a stove fueled with natural gas, and you may go to bed in pajamas laundered with a petroleum detergent, after reading a newspaper printed with ink made from oil, in a room decorated with a paint manufactured from petroleum.

... And that's only a beginning.

The products of the petroleum industry, oil and natural gas, head the list of our most useful resources. A progressive, competitive oil industry, encouraged in the future as in the past, will undertake the further development that will keep them there.

THE LITTLE RIVER PHILOSOPHER WANTS TO KNOW WHAT COMIC BOOKS SOME OF THE BIG MEN OF HISTORY READ

(Editor's note: The Little River Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Little River gets around to discussing the comics this week, but we're not sure what point he makes.

Dear editar:

Ihave been listenin to the discussions and reading about em, these discussions on comic books, and while I'm not an authority on this type of literature as very few of em turn up out here and the newspapers I get hold of arrive too irregularly for a man to keep up with the comics and there ain't nothin more puzzling than to come in late on a comic series and find somebody bleedin to death and not be able to figure out what's funny about it, but I have been goin over the situation in my mind and come to the conclusion that if comic books have the power to make delinquents out of people, somebody sure ought to investigate the comics the present generation read when it was young.

Anybody who could draw a comic book that'd result in the kind of war-like world we got on our hands now must have been the champion delinquent-maker of all time.

Goin further back, I don't know who drew the comic books Julius Caesar read, but he must have been awful.

Coming further up, who drew Hitler's funnies? Stalin's? By the way, them Chinese funnies must have been pretty devastatin too.

Gettin out on another plane, who w the comic books all these hous- in authority officials read when they was young?

I don't want to anme any names but occasionally a Congressman turns up givin evidence a few comic books must have slipped through to him when he was growin up, and nearly every state legislature in the country produces a few characters who obviously got hold of some comic books when they was at the formative stage.

When you stop to think about it, this world from the start of history certainly would have been a different and more peaceful place if the comic book manufacturers hadn't been at work.

Understand, speakin serioulsy, I'm not in favor of feedin children on a diet of horror comics, but while we're keepin them out of touch with the comics, we'd better shut em off from the daily news too, because it's frequently full of horror also. In fact, maybe most children would come out a lot better if they didn't have to come in contact with adults at all.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

EMPLOYEE PROFIT-SHARING PLAN ANNOUNCED BY LEADING CHAIN

Acme-Atlas-Vim Stores Bring Benefits to Employees

LEO KERN, PRESIDENT

A very comprehensive and far-reaching profit sharing plan has been presented to the employees of the Acme, Atlas, Vim Stores; one of the nation's largest independent chains of retail stores, specializing in Sewing Machines and Vacuum Cleaner sales. The home office of the Eastern Division is in Miami, Florida; and the Western Division is in Houston, Texas. The chain consists of 15 store extending through 9 Southern and Southwestern states, and the profit sharing plan will affect over 350 permanent employees.

The announcement of the plan and that it is scheduled to become effective on October 1, 1954, was made by Mr. Leo Kern, President. "This plan is the result of much research and discussion," stated Mr. Kern. "It has been approved by the management and is now in the hands of the U. S. Government for final approval."

"The Acme, Atlas, Vim Management feels that this plan will insure every employee a definite comfortable retirement at a comparatively early age, plus a feeling of security in knowing that he is building a better, more prosperous future for himself and his family," added Mr. Kern.

Principle features of the Plan are: its equal privileges and participation by every employee from porter to president; volunteer employee contributions from $1.00 to $5.00 weekly; employer equals the amount contributed and increases that amount as profits rise; employees eligible to join after ONE year of employment; protection for beneficiaries; and each participant builds up shares in any and all earnings produced by the funds in the Plan.

The Acme, Atlas, Vim chain started as a one store operation in Jacksonville, Florida, in 1947 by Leo and Herbert Kern, brothers. Now seven years later, they have grown to 15 stores doing a yearly total volume of over $5,000,000.00. This is the largest independent retail chain of its kind in the country.

Management executives all over the country are applauding Pension Plans as a sound approach by employers to the ever-present problem of keeping skilled, trained personnel and rewarding them for their years of service.

The growth of this firm over the post-war years is indicative of the progress being made in recent years by the small independent dealers, particularly in the sewing machine industry.

Reverend Harsh Brown, Christian Church Minister, TCU Graduate

By Lloyd Albertson

Recently Rev. Harsh Brown, pastor of the First Christian Church here in Cameron, saw the realization of two goals he had been working toward for some time. He was graduated from TCU's Brite College in Fort Worth with a BD degree. And he was ordained as a minister soon afterwards in a church service in his home town of Huntington Park, California.

The graduation from TCU was in August. The ceremony ordaning him came some three weeks later on Sunday September 12.

Harsh Brown - Harsh is a family name - saye he made his decision to study for the ministry several years ago. It was, he admits, more or less a family decision, really; he was married then and his wife, Francis, encouraged him to make the church a career.

A native Californian, he is the son of a minister — which possibly had something to do with influencing him in his choice. His father died when he was ten. He attended high school in Huntington Park, where his mother had moved the family and was employed as a secretary. Then, during World War II he enlisted in the Navy in November, 1942, and served as a radio operator.

On his discharge in January, of 1946, like many veterans he took advantage of the GI Bill's benefits and enrolled in Chapman College in Loe Angeles, majoring in English Literature. It was there that he met Miss Frances Hackett, a minister's daughter, and they were married while both were still students there.

Graduated from Chapman in 1950 he worked for a time for the Studebaker Corporation. Then came the decision to study for the ministry. So, shortly, thereafter, they came to Fort Worth and he entered Texas Christian University.

It was while he was continuing his studies there that, in August, 1952, he began to serve as pastor of the First Christian Church here.

He was graduated from TCU, as has been said, in August this year. The day afterwards he, his wife, and children —they have three youngsters now, Connie Lyn, 5, Charles Harsh (Chuck), 4, and Kenneth Dwight, 2 years old - climbed into the family car, a Dodge of World War II vintage, and started for California and the realization of the second goal, his being ordained as a minister in his home town church.

Now back in Cameron, Harsh Brown, it is a safe bet, with academic studies past, is looking forward to his first chance to serve the church on a full time basis in the calling which he made the decision to enter.

"Let's Destroy Fire Gremlins", Title Of Grover McCullins Winning Theme (Editors Note: Many original themes showing students deep thoughts in regard to Fire Prevention were turned in to Yoe High School teachers during Fire Prevention Week.

Below is a copy of the winning theme, submitted by Grover McCullin.)

Fire gremlins are little ficticious men that cause fires. There is a gremlin for every kind of fire.

Johnny Gremlin loves to put his hands around match flames and huff and puff and make the flames burn bigger. He is very happy when the match hits in weeds or rubbish and starts burning.

Smokey Gremlin is Johnny's twin brother. Smoky is just about like Johnny, only he likes cigar and cigarette butts. He likes to ride them through the air. He huffs and puffs at them and is over-joyed when they hit some weeds or trash and start a fire.

These twin brothers cause one-third of all fires. These brothers can be stopped by not being careless.

Another member of the Gremlin family is Greasy. He likes to have his fun starting fire in oil-soaked rags. He starts his fun when rags are thrown away. He stomps and rubs the rags together and the oil gets hot. Between the cotton and oil, Greasy eventually starts a fire. His method is known as spontaneous ignition. Greasy can be outwitted by putting the rags in a can with a lid on it.

Sparky Gremlin is another member of the Gremlin family. He lives in electric fixtures and in wires. He starts his fun when a wire is frayed. Sparky puts the wire near another wire and starts an electric arch. Sparky can be outwitted in two ways: First by keeping electric wires in good condition and second, by keeping fuse boxes in good condition.

Here are some rules to help outwit the Gremlin family: First, throw matches in an ash tray; second, smash the end of a cigar or cigarette butt, make sure its out, then put it in an ash tray; third, put all greasy rags in a can with a lid on it; fourth, have all wiring in the house checked at least twice a year; fifth, be careful!

Plant Legumes When Moisture Insures Stand

Recent rains bolstered the farm outlook and in many areas signalled the go-ahead for planting of winter legumes.

Legumes should be seeded as soon as the moisture supply is adequate to insure a stand and to get the crop started says Ben R. Winter legumes should be planted until about November 1.

In the East Texas timber area hairy vetch, Singletary peas, Austraian winter peas and crimson clover are the recommended legume varieties. Dixie wonder peas and common and Williamette vetch are adapted in th southern half of the area but are not winter hardy enough for the northern part of East Texas.

Annual yellow blossom sweetclover is well fitted to the Gulf Coast Prairie and South Texas areas, while the vetches and winter peas, including Dixie wonder, also can be grown.

In the valleys of the Brazos, Colorado and Trinity Rivers where the soil contains more lime, hubam and Madrid sweetclovers do well with the addition of lime.

Hubam and Madrid Sweetclovers get the nod in the Blackland, Grande Prairie and South Texas regions. This is because of their root systems and ability to increase the crop yields that follow and their ability to reduce losses from cotton root rot.

Hairy vetch and winter peas grow well in these areas but are not as effective in the control of root rot or in opening the soil.

Spears says the sweetclovers should be planted in the fall in areas south of Waco, Texas, but spring seedings are recommended in areas to the north.

Hairy vetch, according to Spears, is the most dependable legume in the West Cross Timers area; however, winter peas and the sweetclovers are also adapted to this area.

The principle adapted legume on the High Plains and El Paso valleys is irrigated alfalfa. The biennial sweetclovers, hairy vetch and Austrian winter peas also can be grown as irrigation is available.

Spears suggests farmers check with their local county agricultural agent for information on legume varieties for a particular area and for the latest tips on fertilizing, inoculating and seeding practices.

Burford Harden Attends Meeting Of Grocermen

Burford Harden of the McLane Company, whoelsale grocery firm of Cameron, Texas, accompanied by Mrs. Harden, attended the Management Development Conference being conducted in New Orleans, La. on October 6-8, by the United States Wholesale Grocers' Association. According to Harold O. Smith, Jr., executive vice-president of the Association, the conference is being attended by sixty-eight wholesale grocers from fifteen states and Alaska.

The program deals with departmental controls, warehousing, delivery, and merchandising.

"The conference", said Mr. Smith "is one of the means the Association is furnishing the independent wholesale grocer to aid him in acquiring modern techniques in management and merchandising. Such progress by the independent wholesale and retail grocers enables Mrs Consumer to obtain attractive prices that go easy on the budget."

"Mrs. Consumer is finding it to her advantage", Mr. Smith added, "to buy the uniformly high quality nationally-advertised grocery products in her neighborhood independent super market, superette, or corner grocery store.

"The information the McLane Company gains from this conference will greatly benefit the many retail grocers whom it serves and their consumer customers."

Milam Farmers Should Check Stored Grain

Grain farmers are becoming more interested than ever before concerning on-th-farm storage of farm grain. Along with this interest comes some problems. Insects of stored grain should be called to the attention of all farmers who have stored grain on their farms now. Many grain producers are aware of the enormous losses caused annually by various stored grain insects. It has been estimated that insects eat as much as two percent of the nation's farm stored grain a month.

Milam farmers brought several samples of stored maize to the County Agents office recently, showing damage done by the rice moth or Mediterranean flour moth. These insects confine their activities largely to the surface grain. where the caterpillars spin silken threads that mat the kernels together and form a sliken web over the tops of bins.

Fumigation is the best method for controlling these insects. There are several fumigants that are very effective for killing stored grain insects. These are formulated as various combinations and are sold by companies under different trade names. Some of these fumigants are 1 part carbon tetrachloride plus 3 parts ethylene dichloride. Six gallons of this combination sprayed over the surface of the grain bin will treat 1,000 bu. of grain.

Another fumigant is 4 parts of carbon tetrachloride plus 1 part of carbon disulphide. Five gallons of this material will treat 1,000 bu of grain when sprayed over the top of the grain bin.

Additional information concerning the use of these fumigants is available at the County Agents office in Cameron.

Milam County Health Unit September Report

E. Jackson of Cameron is the new County School Nurse hired by the County School Board. Since the County School Nurse maintains her office in the Health Unit office and works with the Health Unit personnel on many programs, this directly affected the functioning of the Health Unit. Much time was spent by the director, the sanitarian and former employees in acquainting the new personnel with their duties and responsibilities.

MRS. WILLIAM K. LEONARD, JR.

Rosalie Tomek, William Leonard Exchange Vows In Church Ceremony

In a beautiful double ring ceremony at eight-thirty o'clock Saturday morning October 9, Miss Rosalie Tomek became the bride of Mr. William Kenneth Leonard, Jr. The Reverend George J. Duda, pastor, read the nuptial rites at Saint Monica's Catholic Church and later celebrated the Nuptial Mass before an altar decorated with pot plants and queen's wreath. Two large floor baskets of mums flanked either side of the altar.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tomek, Sr. of Cameron. The groom's parents are Mrs. T. C. Buffington of Cameron and W. K. Leonard, Sr., of Galveston.

Miss Frances Michalka played the traditional wedding march and accompanied Miss Marie Hearne of Austin who sang the "Ava Maria" and "Ponis Angelicus".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin, created with a shadow yoke, scolloped sweetheart neckline and sculptured lace bodice. The lace motif was repeated at the hipline with a peplum and the tulle and lace skirt formed a cathedral length train. Cascading tiers of nylon tulle ruffles formed a panel at the front of the skirt.

A crown of orange blossoms held her full length veil of illusion bordered with lace. She carried a bridal bouquet of feathered carnations entwined with satin streamers and centered with a deep throated white orchid. The bride carried out the tradition of wearing something old, new and etc. Her only jewelry consisted of a single string of pearls and pearl earscrews.

Miss Henrietta Slavik was the bride's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss JoAnn Coody of Bryan, Miss Ann Karnowski, Miss Carol Ann Leonard, sister of the groom, and Miss Dorothy Marie Hall of San Antonio.

The attendants were all dressed identically in gowns of white nylon net over taffeta. The close fitted bodice featured a round neckline, applied with four rows of shirred ruffles, sprinkled with tiny pink rosebuds. The full floor length double net skirts were gathered softly at the waist and sprinkled with pink rosebuds. Their attire was completed with a white net and taffeta heartshaped headpiece and white net mits. They carried hand bouquets of pink carnations and wore white satin slippers. The attendants only jewelry was a string of pearls and pearl earscrews, a gift of the bride.

Little Miss Julie Ann Vaculin was the flower girl. She was dressed similar to the attendants and carried a small hand bouquet of pink carnations.

Serving as bestman was Louis Krenek. Groomsmen were Bobby Biskup, Jimmy Rettig, Dell Rinn, and Paul Kunz. The groom and his attendants wore summer tuxedoes and boutonnieres.

James Sims of San Antonio, Bill Kincer of Houston and Eugene Mitchan of Cameron served as ushers.

Ring bearer was George Pavelik. He was dressed in a white jacket and dark trousers and carried a tiny white satin pillow that had the rings fastened to it.

Mrs. Tomek chose for her daughter's wedding a navy blue crepe dress with matching accessories The groom's mother wore a navy blue faille dress with pink accessories. Her corsage was also of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Simon-George Memorial Hall. The reception table, covered with a white linen cutwork cloth, was centered by the five tiered wedding cake, flanked on either side by two tall pink tapers. The crystal punch bowel was placed on the end of the table, while other crystal and silver appointed the table.

The cake, which was iced white and decorated with pink rosebuds and green leaves rested on a reflector. A minature bride and groom topped the cake with pink and white carnations and fern surrounding the edge.

Cutting the cake was Mrs. James Coody of Bryan, sister of the bride. Assisting her were Mrs. Eugene Mitchan, sister of the groom. Pouring punch was Mrs. James L. Sims of San Antonio, sister of the bride, assisted by Mrs. Charlie J. Tomek of Killeen and Mrs. Bill Kincer of Houston, sister of the bride.

Registering guests in the bride's book was Miss Blanche Herndon of Houston.

At noon the bridal couple was honored at a barbeque dinner served at the Simon-George Hall with the wedding party, immediate family and close friends present.

When the couple left for their honeymoon, Mrs. Leonard was wearing a navy blue fall suit with Mrs. Weldon Parker of Milano, ena white nylon blouse. She chose white and navy accessories and wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Leonard graduated from the Yoe High School, Cameron, in 1953 and was employed at the United Gas Corporation in Houston for the past year. Mr. Leonard, who graduated from Yoe High School in 1954 is employed in the chemical laboratory at Alcoa Aluminum Company of America at Rockdale.

Following a short wedding trip to Austin the couple is making their home at 109 North Crockett Avenue, Cameron.

Out of town guests include Miss Blanche Herndon, Mrs. M. J. Orton Miss Barbara Hollingsworth, Miss Delores Phipps, Asta Rinn, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Bulldogs Take Rosebud Lions 27-0 Friday their teeth and ran the Rosebud Lions all over the field on both offense and defense for a 27-0 win Friday night on the Rosebud field.

Charles Hobbs, steam-roller for the Bulldogs, ran three touchdowns across the line and Hubert Debose was responsible for the other touchdown. James Dickie kicked the only extra point made.

The first Bulldog march through the Rosebud goal post came in the first five minutes of play with the next scored near the end of the first quarter.

Rosebud's Lions kept the local boys to no scores in the second quarter and a safety in the third quarter when Charles Hobbs and Floyd Dickie tackled a Lion behind the Bulldog goal line for two points.

Bulldogs enthusiasm carried them to several penalities, several more touchdowns were in the offing when the referree motioned them back, with clipping being the main offense.

John Campbell, took the game into the air, and completed eight out of ten buttonhole passes to Turner or Hobbs.

This was their second district game, having lost the first to Taylor 13-7. The next game, to be played on the Yoe High stadium will be with one of the strongest teams in the district, College Station. Thus far the College Station 11 have won their three games, all non-conference.

Football Score, 156 to 0? It Happened!

When a football team can average better than one touchdown every two minutes, then it's time to sit down and take notice.

It seems this was the case when the Aycock High School Tigers from Rockdale played the Snook eleven. The final score: Aycock, 156, Snook, 0.

The high scoring affair took place in Rockdale on Wednesday night, as the two district teams met. Both Rockdale and Snook play the O. J. Thomas High School Bulldogs from Cameron in conference play.

The Rockdale squad has a high flying eleven as they are undefeated this season and have not been scored on tous far.

Coach Ralph Johnson's Rockdale lads started their scoring spree quickly Wednesday night and ran up a score of 85 to 0 at halftime. The coach used every man on his 22-man squad and played his second team throughout the last half in an effort to keep the score down.

The win was the second district victory for Rockdale. In district competition they also have a 39-0 win over Rosebud to their credit. In their other two non-district tilts they defeated Waco B 24 - 0 and Georgetown 37-0.

Rockdale's 156 points against Snook were divided as follows: 24 touchdowns, 10 extra points, and one safety.

The scoring:

Louis Wilson, halfback, 2 touchdowns, 3 extra points; Bob Robertson, halfback, 4 touchdowns; Mickie McKee, end, 3 touchdowns and 3 extra points; Arthur Locklin, halfback, 3 touchdowns; Leroy Wright, quarterback, 2 touchdowns 4 extra points; Charley Maloy, full back, 2 touchdowns; Willie Dykes, fullback, 2 touchdowns; Billy Joe Douglas, guard, 2 touchdowns, 1 safety; Albert Malone, end, one touchdown.

It is believed that the game set a scoring record for the state. The Rockdale Reporter.

Fashions For Fall Include Many Styles For Individual Taste Selection

Suits, knitted, tweed and orlondacron mixtures are evident in Cameron shop windows, heralding the first days of fall with a look into the cooler days expected in the near future.

The look for fall and winter is the Molded Look, a blend of classic and contemporary. It combines the simplicity of Picasso's "Woman in White" with the verve of a Dufy watercolor and allows for the nimbleness Degas bestowed upon his ballerinas.

Translated into clothes, the silhouette offers choice. And it demands no rigid corseting. Slim skirts appear willow-slender but carefully controlled pegs mean easy movement. Full skirts abound too and when underscored with Pellon, the wondrous wrinkle-proof lining, they offer bounce.

The old world love for rich fabrics and the new world's demand for simplicity in care of them is best exemplified in Victoria Velveteen, created by Stephanie Koret. This fabric has the rich texture the monarchs so loved and so chose for their coronation garb. And it has the modern woman's approval because it's washable.

For strolling across Harvard Yard, for the look at once informal and urbane, for in town and byyond city limits, Victoria Velveteen is right.

The approach to the fall and winter curriculum calls for a quilted skirt of Victoria Velveteen which describes a full bouncy cartwheel. It's a feminine silhouette that even the Paris couturiers take to.

And there's choice in the topping too. A brief Empire jacket is nipped in a its shortened waist and is enhanced by three-quarter kimona sleeves. All this is punctuated with a large rounded collar. Pellon lining keeps the collar ever crisp and ever to windward. A double breasted weskit, sleeveless, with a flattering oval neckline, is demure and right too.

For the girl who's read Hemingway and hankers to play with a muleta, she can be a matador vicariously by donning the new skinny pants and bolero in the Koret of California collection. These luxurious garments, elegant and pearl studded, have all the pageantry of a bullfight in Madrid. Wear them for partying, on campus to start the new fad innovation, or for shopping, just to start gossip.

For daring decor, there's a corsolet that conjures up the romanticism of King Arthur's days. It's a delicately molded close-fitting garment with faille straps which reach spaghetti-like in width to the back. Be sophisticated, wear the

Bulldogs To Meet Rosebud There Friday

Cameron Bulldogs of O. J. Thomas High School will challenge the green and white clad Rosebud 11 on the Rosebud field Friday night.

This is the second conference game for the local team, having lost their first one to the Taylor Panthers in the last 30 seconds of the game.

The Bulldogs outplayed the Taylor team on both offensive and defensive plays all the way across the field to lose the game in a heart-breaking pass in the last seconds of play.

In the game coming up Friday night the boys will again be pretty evenly matched, with both teams averaging about 150 pounds per man.

The Bulldogs have five more conference games slated after the Rosebud game they are College Station here on October 15; Caldwell, here, the homecoming game, on October 22; Rockdale; there, October 27; Snook in Caldwell on November 12; and Rosenthal in Waco on Novmber 19.

Pagel-Bryan Tractor Suit Held In Austin

County Judge Charles C. Smith, Jr., returned to Cameron Thursday from Austin where he represented the Bryan Tractor Implement Com pany vs O. Pagel in their case bpany vs O. Pagel in their case before the Court of Civil Appeals.

laintiff aPgel brought the suit, in which he charged that a tractor purchased and paid for by him, from the Implement Company, wouldn't operate as represented, before the District Cout which entered a judgement in Pagel's favor for $4,000.

The plaintiff then took the case to the Court of Civil Appeals. The Implement Company counter-acted the charge that the machine would not do the work as represented with the contention that the machine was not at fault at that time but the weather, which curtailed efficient operation with drouth conditions which prevailed here in 1951.

Don Humble, of Camp and Camp Law offices, presented the Defendants side of the case.

After hearing oral arguments Wednesday, October 6, the Court withheld judgment and now has the case under advisement.

10th STREET —

Weems answered curtly, "You didn't give us nothing, we already had it."

After pondering the issue for a matter of minutes school men voiced their thoughts that they had presumed that they were doing a good deed when allowng the parking zone by not creating any traffic hazard.

One board member then asked of Weems and the board if they thought the people living along that particular street would be willing to give a little frontage to make the street wider all the way.

Reid pointed out that it looks like the city is trying to make the school officials the goat, that in all the many past years they haven't seen fit to claim a 60' right of way but now, that the school has seen fit to use the infringing 15 feet for their own benefit the city "now jumps down our throat".

Dr. Swift, assuming the position of mediator, reminded the board that he had been told that several people wanted the islands removed enought to direct Jack Prescott, local attorney, to file suit if they failed to do so.

Looking into the future and the importance of harmony in the school and the city, Dr. Swift sagely stated, "I would hate to see a group of people put up money, even $5. or $10 for this purpose." He added that whenever a person metes out money for a thing of this sort it causes a wound that is many years and often times never healed.

He said that he always believed in upholding a principale but that the item is not large enough to warrant all the fuss that is being made over it and that it is his firm belief that it is becoming a personality clash instead of a breach of issue. Why not acquiesce with the whims of the council and be done with it.

Reid said, that he is able to say, "I'm wrong" but that the city had made no effort to comply with their requests and that the street in front of the school was worked on only after it became impassable and something had to be done. That they haven't done a thing for the school board.

After stating that he hated to be made a goat of he said, "My usefulness on the school board has about come to an end and I'm willing to give my resignation and let Gene Blake fill my position."

Dr. Swift overlooked the resignation and Weems stated that it wouldn't be the council or the board that would be the goat, but him (Weems), that as chairman of the street committee the people would blame him until the street was finished to their satisfaction.

A solution to the quandry was offered by a member of the board after much more discussion. He asked if it wouldn't be feasible to complete the project, with the school paying for the necessary gravel, etc. and then have a board composed of one school board member, one councilman and from three to five disinterested citizens look at the project and once and for all decide whether or not it is a traffic hazard.

The matter was rested with a resolution that a letter to that effect, on an arbitration committee, be sent the council for their consideration and a hope that the two groups of elceted citizens can reach a compromise to the satisfaction of both and continue their relations in harmony.

RESOLVED that the Board decline to consent to the removal of the safety areas at the southeast corner of the Ben Milam School. That the President of the Board request the City to complete the grading and surfacing of the adjacent street and parking area, as previously agreed upon. That the areas in question having been designed as a protection for the school children, and to afford a recessed parking area off the public street for the benefit of the public, an opportunity should be had to see whether an unsatisfactory condition actually exists, and that the areas in question should not be removed arbitrarily. That the Board is willing to abide the decision in the matter of a committee of disinterested citizens.

It was also brought up that any patrons having objections to the radius points were welcome to appear before the board at any time and voice their objections.

After the conclusion was reached the board voted to go all the way with the arbitration committee and if they deemed it necessary as a safety measure, to remove the islands after work is completed the school will see that it is done immediately. That actually, thus far, the whole thing is just a matter of personal opinion and that the area was originanlly designated on the advice of the city engineer.

to be residents of this district have not as yet registered.

Sadberry next addressed the board stating that his schools are off to a good start although everybody is overloaded. He added that the two extra teachers have greatly helped conditions.

He next told the board that the instigation of a school band has been greatly appreciated, and all of the people are enthusiastic in seeing that it goes over well.

The only thing Sadberry mentioned needing the attention of the board was filling in the holes on the school campus. He cited several locations where water stands between the new and old building. He was advised to have the teachers park elsewhere than in the middle of the school ground so that this space can be used for playground purposes.

He then concluded with the statement that the enrollment lack 10 haveing as many registerd as last year but that attendance is exceptionally good.

September 23, 1954, Tax Election was set as the date for the regular School elections in the Yoe High School Gymnasium.

New Building

It was decided that the schools will send a check to the contractor of the new Ben Milam School for the sidewalks installed at the front of the building.

Hanes said that he has written a letter to the contractors in regard to finsihing work on the floors and closets and getting the clock in operation.

After adjusting and approving the school expenditures and budget for September the board members decided to give the insurance business on the three school buses to Gordon Baskin, in accordance with thieir policy to place the bus insurance with all local firms at intervals.

A short discussion was then held on playground equipment for the new Ben Milam School, with Hanes stressing that the school teachers do not want play equipment. That they have thought the problem over carefully and decided that the children are happier and better supervised in group games where all can participate, with out the hazardous play equipment.

District Buildings

Several building within various communities in this school district were visited by Voglesang and Leo Fuchs recently to determine their value, diminsions and saleability.

Their report, given astutely and humorously by Voglesang included the information that the North Elm School, 72 x 32 foot with one and one-half acres of ground, is in good condition. Others visited were the Watts Switch school, which is 32 x 24 foot siding with a 20 x 12 lunch room adjoining; the String Prairie colored school, which is 32 x 20 foot.; the Curry colored school, which is 30 x 14 foot and the Hoyt Colored School, which is 70 x 20 foot.

It was decided that the buildings will be sold by the school in the near future.

At the condlusion of his report Voglesang added, "In conclusion we would like to say that we enjoyed visiting the different communities and talking to the trustees. They were cordial to us and realized our problems. Too, there was the usual barking dog too near one pair of heels and yes, someone will certainly get a suprise out a five foot chicken snake that we first mistook for a rattler that is down under a pit. We decided he should go with water pump enclosed in a concrete the pump."

The only other point brought up was the matter of the green stamps given the school monthly by Mack's Oil Company, amounting to $463 37 monthly. It was pointed out that year before last Mrs. Hanes was given the stamps and last year Mrs. Clifton Jenness was presented the stamps.

YOEMEN —

Killeen recovers and stops the Yoemen touchdown drive.

Minutes later, another Cameron fumble set up the third and final touchdown for the 'Roos. Deep in their own territory, Cameron fumbled the ball and Killeen took over on the Yoe 30 yard line. A fifteen yard penality against Cameron moved the ball within the ten and set up an even better scoring opportunity for Killeen. This time it was Don Armstrong who went over on a quarterback sneak. Franklin again kicked the extra point. The score, Killeen, 20, and Cameron nothing.

The fourth quarter was a defensive battle all the way with the forward walls holding on both teams. It was Cameron's quarter as the mighty Killeen crew was held to only one yard rushing to Cameron's 44 yards and a 30 yard pass gain.

The final quarter opened with Michalka connecting with End Fred Petmecky for a pass good for 30 yards.

But that was all. The Killeen team cut up all future attempts of the Yoe's going toward TD territory and they took over. After losing nine yards during the entire time they had pocession of the ball, Cameron again took over, and they were set back for a total of three yards, minus.

Killeen took over again, but failed to keep the ball and after a total gain of one yard, Cameron took over, and lost a total of two yards.

Killeen took Beale's punt on their own 30 yard line but to no avail and where forced to kick to the Cameron 50 yard line.

At this point the Yoemen began their 50 yard touchdown drive that ended beyond the goal posts with 30 seconds left to play in the ball game. Engineering the drive was Jimmy Retting, Joe Michalka, and Buddy Thompson who slipped over from the one yard line for the well earned six points. George Absnaider's kick after the TD was no good.

Playing good defensive ball was Leon Beale, fullback, Albert Mondrick, Paul Hoelscher, Laddie Dohnalik, Steve Polzer, George Absnaider and Monroe Bayer. Joe Michalka sparkled on his passing and Thompson roared on when the yards needed to be gained. Despite his broken hand, Jimmy Rettig failed to be stopped once again, and played a very good offensive ballgame.

During the half time Miss Josephine Wohleb was presented to the public as the band sweetheart for 1954-55. Sarah Arthur was also presented as the band mascot. The two young ladies were presented bouquets of mums by Superintendent of schools, W. T. Hanes.

Captains for the Yoemen for Friday night were Benny Massengale and Michalka.

shape for the district opener and thats when the other District 22-AA teams had better watch their step. The Yoes spirits are high, while their winnings are low, but two to one, they're out to remedy that one item.

Still leading the backfield with scoring is Jimmy Rettig with 30 points to his credit. Joe Lee Heitman is second with 12. Buddy Thompson has come a long way, as has Leon Beale, with both plunging through the enemies line for extra gains. Joe Michalka came through last Friday night with some beautiful chucking, and if the Yoemen can keep their hold on his passes, they'll most probably use the air a lot against district foes. Beale has showed up remarkly well in the punting business.

Rounding out the backfield are Clifford Angell and Woodrow Lynch

Grasses In Area Good Despite Present Drouth

The Central Texas Soil Conservation District Board of Supervisors have been receiving reports on some of the grass soddings and seedings made in the Cameron area this spring. Considering the effects of the droutgh, they are very well pleased with results reported in most cases.

Buffelo grass still looks good as an introduced grass on the upland sands and mixed lands where it received proper fertilization and grazing management. John A Smith has about 20 acres in the Branchville community, E. E. Williams has 10 acres in the Bel Mena communtiy and Bently Fletcher has about 20 acres in the Hoyt-Minerva area. All of these farmers report some grazing on these plots this year and are making plans to seed more acreage next season.

Clyde Hensley and Lawrence McClarren, both sodded between 10 and 15 acres of coastal Bermuda from their nursery plots. These have made completed cover and will furnish roots to cover a large acreage next season. Both of the farmers like coastal Bermuda better than the native Bermuda and are making plans to sod all of their pastures that are adapted, to coastal Bermuda.

Other grass established this year are King Ranch Bluestem, Angleton Bluestem and native Bermuda grass.
